FUSE is pleased to announce the Growing Together Early Learning Series is now available in Shelby County! The Growing Together Early Learning Series gives families of young children ideas for fun play-based activities that will help their child develop early learning skills. Each session will target different developmental areas, including speech/language, gross motor, fine motor and social emotional development.

Registration is required for each session.

Register on our website at www.fuseinc.org or by calling
317-462-9064

Only 10 spots available per session!

Designed for Shelby County* mothers and fathers to attend along with their children with special needs, ages one to five

Take home a great gift bag of toys used in each session!

Funded in part by a grant from the Blue River Community Foundation

*program participation is limited to Shelby County residents only
