

FUSE

Growing Together Early Learning Series

Time to Talk

Saturday, March 28

Training 10:00-11:00 AM

Shelby County Public Library
57 W Broadway
Shelbyville

Session will be in the Carnegie East Wing, Room A

Trainer: Rosemary Burke, SLP
from PediPlay

Learn how to easily work developmental activities into your everyday routines! The Time to Talk session will help parents understand the importance of speech and language development as it relates to their child's social skills, confidence, peer relationships, reading skills and much more! The session will focus on activities parents and caregivers can do quickly and easily throughout the day to encourage growth of speech and language skills.

Registration is required by
March 25

Register on our website at www.fuseinc.org or by calling 317-462-9064

Only 10 spots available!

Designed for Shelby County* mothers and fathers to attend along with their children with special needs, ages one to five

Take home a great gift bag of toys used in the session!

Funded in part by a grant from the Blue River Community Foundation *program participation is limited to Shelby County residents only

